

MARRIAGES CUT IN ISLE OF WIGHT

The Clerk Dead and No One
Left to Succeed
Him.

WILL BE VACANT A WEEK

North Carolina Convicts Are Brought Through Virginia.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUFFOLK, VA., June 24.—A very unique condition of affairs obtains at the clerk's office in Isle of Wight county, Va. The clerk of courts, Nathaniel F. Young, died this week, and Circuit Judge R. R. Francis, whose home is in Suffolk, said to-night that no appointment had been made and would not be until next week. In the meantime there is no person in that county who is qualified to issue marriage licenses or to do any other official act for which a clerk's office is chosen. The deputy clerk over there was a girl, but, according to the judge's say-so, neither she nor a man deputy would have a right to sell nuptial permits. Judge Francis said the vacancy filling might be done next week.

There already are three applicants, according to an attorney from the scene, who was here to-night—A. Sidney Johnson, who was a captain of State militia; C. H. Hart and Joseph D. Lattimer. CONVICTS ON ROAD WORKERS.
SHERIFF REED, of Elizabeth City, N. C., who is the sheriff of Pasquotank county, of the same State, passed through Suffolk to-day with six prisoners, who are going to be used for public work in his county. The men are from Martin county, N. C., and Pasquotank gets them because of higher bids. Superior Court Judge George W. Ward telegraphed Sheriff Reed to come for them.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 24.—In the final of the gentlemen's doubles for the London tennis championship at the Queen's Club to-day, William J. Clothier and William A. Larned (Americans) defeated Holcombe Ward and Beals C. Wright (Americans). The play was spectacular and attracted a large gathering of spectators who expected to see Ward and Wright return the winners, but Clothier and Larned reversed the anticipations of the gallery. The loss of the match is attributed to the hard work done by Ward and Wright in the semi-finals, in singles and doubles on Fridays.
